

Marial Parmena Kelei
Chief of Operations, South Sudan

EDUCATION

- Bachelors of Arts in Geography, Joint University of Juba, 2013

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Speaks more than 4 languages
- Served as a teacher at Dimma Refugee Camp in Ethiopia and at Tuonygeu Primary School in S. Sudan
- Extensive experience working with state authorities in infrastructure and logistics

BACKGROUND

Marial works full-time as an Assistant Inspector for water resources and irrigation in the Jonglei State Department of Land and Physical Infrastructure.

He has worked as Assistant Inspector for Logistic and procurement for the Jongeli State Ministry of Health at Bor State Hospital in partnership with Medicin San Frontier (Doctors Without Borders).

He has taught part time at both the primary school and the vocational center in the Dimma Refugee Camp in Ethiopia. From 2007-2008, Marial served as a teacher for Ministry of Education at Tuonygeu Primary School in South Sudan.

Marial is committed to bringing peace to his homeland. He has written for Peacemaker magazine published in Nairobi, Kenya and conducted community workshops promote peaceful relationships between communities.

Marial is a committed Christian who has served the Almighty as youth leader in the Episcopal Church, and later as chairman and church moderator in the Pentecostal Church. He is married with one son.

Africa Sunrise Communities is blessed to have Marial as Chief of Operations in South Sudan, and his experience working with the state will help facilitate our developments in Bor.

Restoring + Empowering + Reconciling

www.AfricaSunrise.org + PO Box 82, Wilmore, KY 40390 + info@AfricaSunrise.org + 713.586.9621